Season — Plenty of bands, prizes— and lots of fine people. Betcha "Kirk" Coulburn and son were leaders in setting up this event. I used to work alongside Kirk over on the famous Eastern Shore NEWS at Onancock. His father was Accomack's Commissioner of the Revenue. In those early days, I was the News Editor, and Kirk was Shop Foreman. He came across the Bay to Blacksstone, and has served as chairman of the Board of Supervisors, etc., and the successful publisher of The Courier-Record."

Reminds me of the famous words of the immortal orator, "Patrick Henry" He won lasting glory in history for his great "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death" speech. He began his peroration with the cry: "Why stand we here idle? The next gale that sweeps from The North will bring to our ears the clash of resouding arms . . ." etc. So modiften 'we paraphrase, "Why don't we put up our Christmas lighting, get the Christmas shopping season into orbit and start the ball rolling for "Light the Tree, for '63."
